1.1	Playing area	New diagram	Old diagram
1.8	Team Area	The team area extends from the back of the field of play to 3 m from the centre line and is at least 1m, and preferably 2 m, from the side line (see diagram below).	1.1 c Substitute players shall sit in a team area situated alongside the side line adjacent to the post that the team is defending. The team area extends from the back of the field of play to 3 m from the centre line and is at least 1m, and preferably 2 m, from the side line (see diagram below).
1.6	Corner 2-point zones	The corner 2-point zones are each marked by a line 3-5 cm wide extending across the corner between a point 3 m along the side line from the corner and a point 3 m along the end line from the corner.	1.2 The corner 2-point zones are each marked by a line 3-5 cm wide extending across the corner between a point 2 m along the side line from the corner and a point 2m along the end line from the corner.
1.9	Substitution area	All substitutions must be done in front of the designated team area.	The substitution area is on the same side of the playing area as the team areas and extends the distance between the team areas (see diagram 1).
4	Persons
4.2	Substitutes	The maximum number of substitute players is four (two males and two females). They must remain in their team area during the match, except to warm up prior to substitution. A player that has been substituted should remain with the other substitutes.	2.2 c The substitutes are considered members of the team. Other than in circumstances mentioned below, they must all remain seated or kneeling in their team area during the match. A player that has been substituted should sit with the other substitutes. Substitutes are allowed to stand to warm up prior to substitution.

4.4	Coach	Each team is permitted to be accompanied by a coach. The coach must remain in the team area allocated to his team.	2.2 b Each team is permitted to be accompanied by a coach. The coach must sit in the team area allocated to his team. The coach is permitted to stand during the break between halves (or other periods if used).
4.5	Referee	a) to decide the suitability of the field of play, material, equipment and evaluate the weather conditions The main reason for cancellation could be outdoor weather conditions, in particular thunderstorms. A time lag of less than 30 seconds between lightning and thunder is considered dangerous for beach/outdoor conditions.	a) to decide the suitability of the field of play, material and equipment The main reason for cancellation could be outdoor weather conditions
4.5	Other person attached to the team		d) Other Persons Each team is permitted to be accompanied by one other person, in addition to the players and the coach. If the team is accompanied by a member of medical staff, he is allowed to enter the field of play with the permission of the referee.
5	The game
5.1	Teams	When one or both teams are temporarily incomplete and have less than 2 players, the game is abandoned.	2.1 b When one or both teams are incomplete, the match can only be continued, if a line up is possible that ensures that there are at least three players from each side and that these can be matched by gender (i.e. one female and two male players opposed by one male and two female players is not possible). When one team has less than three players or the conditions mentioned above concerning the possible line up of male and female players cannot be met, the game is abandoned (see §2.3e).

5.3	Golden Goal	Change according with the changes of GG Except for the penalty after GG as describe bellow: If there is no winning team at the end of the golden goal period, free shots series takes place at the free shot line as described below: - a toss is made immediately after the end of the golden goal period; - the winner of the toss chooses if it takes the first free shot or not and to which korf the free shots are taken; - no substitutions are allowed; - the players who were playing at the end of the golden goal period take series of free shots using the “sudden death” system, where free shots are taken in the same order until one team has scored a goal more than the other has from the same number of free shots. The team who scores more free shots is declared the winner.
5.5	Goals	A goal is recorded as one point except when it is scored from a two-point zone and counts as two points. A goal scored from a free-shot that resulted from an infringement on a shooter within a two-point zone is recorded as one point, except if the free shot is taken from a 2 point zone.	3.2 a (para. 4) A goal is recorded as two points when scored from a two-point zone and as one point otherwise. A goal scored from a free-shot that resulted from an infringement on a shooter within a two-point zone is recorded as one point.
5.8	Substitutions of players		2.1 c The competition rules shall prescribe how many substitutions are allowed, the maximum is 4.
5.9	Treatment of injured players	Provided the injury is such that it is safe to move the player, he should be immediately removed from the field to be treated and to be substituted.	An injured player is allowed to be assessed/treated for a period of one minute starting when the medical attendant reaches the location of the injury. If after one minute the player is deemed not to be fit to immediately continue then, provided the injury is such that it is safe to move the player, he should be immediately removed from the field and be substituted.
6	INFRINGEMENTS OF THE RULES
			3.11 Unless he is being very closely hindered by an opponent, a player is not allowed to hold the ball for longer than four (4) seconds. An infringement is punished by a re-start to the other team.

7	Sanctions and Disciplinary
7.4	Free shot	In the instance that the free shot is awarded as the result of an infringement clearly aimed to stop the fast attack , then a yellow card will be shown to the player that committed the infringement with the consequences mentioned in 7.5 a) applying.	3.10 a) In the instance that the free shot is awarded as the result of an infringement in a two-point area , then a yellow card will be shown to the player that committed the infringement with the consequences mentioned in §2.3f applying.
7.4 d)	Free shot	The opposing team, coach and members of that team must refrain from any actions or comments that may disturb the person taking the free shot.
